DESCRIPTION

14/14a Market Place comprises a Grade II listed mixed-use property situated in the picturesque town of Hingham.

The ground floor shop has large display windows fronting the Market Place/B1108 and an open plan retail space with steps splitting the accommodation. The shop also has a teapoint, wc and storage cupboard, with access to a small rear courtyard. To the front of the property is a passageway and separate entrance to the first-floor studio flat.

The self-contained first floor studio flat has maintained its character with the charming beamed bed/sitting room, but with modern touches. A modern kitchenette is fully fitted with units, under counter fridge/freezer, microwave oven and induction hob. The shower room has recently been refitted with a new suite and electric shower. The property is heated with new Ducassa electric radiators.

LOCATION

Hingham is a charming market town known for its elegant architecture and attractive period buildings. The property enjoys a prime position overlooking Hingham's picturesque village green in the heart of the town.

The town offers a range of local facilities including a popular pub, café's, independent shops, a doctors surgery and a beautiful historic church. Surrounded by unspoilt countryside, Hingham combines rural tranquillity with accessibility - just 6 miles from Wymondham and around 17 miles from the vibrant city of Norwich with good road links to other parts of Norfolk.
